Public Notice

VOTER REGISTRATION OF CAMEROONIANS IN THE U.K

In view of the upcoming 2011 Presidential Election, the High Commission for the Republic of Cameroon would like to inform Cameroonians in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland that on 13th August 2011, a Delegation from the Directorate General of Elections, Elections Cameroon (ELECAM) did install the ELECAM Focal Point at the Chancellery in London.

The said Focal Point is functioning as the Fixed Centre to carry out Voter Registration of Cameroonians settled or residing in the U.K.

Cameroonians are therefore kindly invited to register, in person, at the Fixed Centre upon presentation of a valid Consular Card. They will also be required to provide additional information such as the names of their parents.

The Registration Centre for Voter Registration will be open as follows:

- Monday - Friday: 09.30 am to 5 pm
- Saturday: 10.30 am to 5 pm

The High Commission would like to remind Cameroonians that, as previously announced, the Consular Card will be obtained or renewed free of charge for those who apply for it on or before the 31st August 2011.

Furthermore, it should be noted that the 31st August 2011 is the dateline to register on the Voters' Lists.

Nkwelle EKANEY
High Commissioner.
