PUBLIC NOTICE

The Cameroonian community in the United Kingdom is hereby informed that 500 teaching positions have been advertised for recruitment in the country's eight Public Universities. This corresponds to the third and last phase of the special recruitment of 2000 university lecturers (PhD holders) commenced in 2019.

Interested persons can deposit their applications directly in the university of their choice. Alternatively, they may also deposit them at the Cameroon High Commission in London on or before the 30th of September 2021 to be forwarded to the university of their choice.

Applicants are expected to undergo a selection interview organised by the university to which they have applied.

Details on the positions advertised per university and the composition of the application file can be found at, <http://www.minesup.gov.cm> or on the individual university's website.
